

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
Strathmore Community Rugby Trust	Angus	£91,943	The group will use the funding to run a sports leadership programme for young people at risk of exclusion and non-engagement with mainstream education. The programme of activities are based around rugby sessions alongside skills workshops and young people will gain a qualification upon completion.
Dunoon Baptist Church	Argyll and Bute	£30,000	This group will use the funding to engage young people, aged 12 years and above, in a diverse programme of youth-led activities and learning opportunities. The programme will be supported by an experienced youth worker, eight adult volunteers, young leaders, and provide a safe environment in which young people can improve their wellbeing and social skills whilst accessing new opportunities.
Centre for the Moving Image	City of Edinburgh	£45,000	This group will deliver a year long programme of youth engagement focusing on film education, learning and career development activities. The programme will be delivered at the group's cinemas in Edinburgh and Aberdeen, and online providing young people with inspiring, creative experiences in film giving them the insight and understanding needed to build a career in the film industry.
Action for Children	City of Edinburgh	£99,991	This group will use the funding to provide a youth project for young people aged 14-21 years from ethnic minority backgrounds in Edinburgh. One to one and group support will be provided covering a range of activities identified by the young people such as cultural/heritage, sports, music and arts. Young people will be encouraged to develop new skills and participate in new activities leading to better connections in the local community.
The Children's Parliament	City of Edinburgh	£52,339	This group will support children aged 10-12 years to carry out an investigation into how professionals can make rights real. The children will explore the topic, present the findings and produce a range of resources including training material for professionals. The children will engage with community-based professionals to explore what the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) incorporation into Scots law means for children and professional practice.
Article 12 in Scotland	City of Edinburgh	£99,732	This group will use the funding to address gaps in the education and work experience of young Gypsy/Travellers (13-25) through engagement in an individually tailored programme of learning and development opportunities. The three year project will help the young people gain new skills and accredited qualifications that will increase access to employment opportunities.

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
Children in Scotland	City of Edinburgh	£49,873	The group will use funding to deliver a co-designed research project with a group of six peer researches (aged 14-18 years). The peer researchers will gather the views and experiences of children and young people aged 8-24 years to explore participation through the pandemic. The project will benefit approximately 200 children across Scotland and will target young people will who might not get the opportunity to get their voices heard.
Scottish Chamber Orchestra Limited	City of Edinburgh	£30,000	This group will use the funding for their creative project which will help young people aged 14 to 18 years with a diagnosis of moderate to severe mental health issues to feel heard, supported and encouraged through collaborative music-making. The free three-day courses are open to referred young people who have an interest in any style of music, regardless of their musical experience or ability.
Community Enterprise Limited	City of Edinburgh	£75,000	This group will continue delivery of their 'Creative Natives' project, where vulnerable young people can participate in creative activities including fashion, fanzine design and web-design. The programme will be participant led with the creative projects improving confidence and self-esteem, in addition to developing practical skills that can lead to work.
Scran Academy SCIO	City of Edinburgh	£89,300	This group will use the funding to deliver an employability and leadership programme known as Scransitions which will support young people to transition into the work and industry training. They will work with ten young people on the programme twice a year, working with sixty young people over the three years of funding from across the North of Edinburgh.
Granton Youth Ltd	City of Edinburgh	£71,348	This group will use the funding to provide outdoor activities for young people between the ages of 10-24 years within Granton and the wider North Edinburgh area.
Connect Alloa	Clackmannanshire	£66,114	This group will deliver a peer led programme of recreational and wellbeing activities aimed at young people aged 10-19 years who live in Clackmannanshire. The project will reduce isolation amongst participants and promote positive physical and mental wellbeing.
RockSolid Dundee	Dundee City	£92,742	This project will incorporate a range of youth work with three key themes wellbeing, community, and work and accreditation. Building on current programmes this will involve activities such as courses on health and wellbeing topics, organising and participating in community events, and opportunities for a variety of accreditation.
Central Carers Association Falkirk And Clackmannan	Falkirk	£99,930	This project will allow the group to enhance the way in which young carers and young adult carers are supported with a new dedicated member of staff. As well as delivering 1-2-1 work and group support, the project will develop a Young Carers Forum enabling young people to shape services and decisions that impact them at local and national levels. The project will also offer young carers opportunities to gain skills and qualifications in the process.

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
The Conservation Volunteers	Falkirk	£60,813	This project will allow the group to further develop their programme of outdoor youth activities in the Camelon area. Activities will be set by the young people and are likely to include path building, greenspace clearing and wood carving. They will also have opportunities to develop their personal skills through volunteering, peer mentoring and gaining qualifications.
Central Advocacy Partners	Falkirk	£91,503	This group will use the funding to deliver a peer led programme of workshop activities aimed at young people living with a diagnosis of Autism aged 12-24 years in the Falkirk local authority area. The project will focus on the various life transitions undertaken by the young people, and as well as reducing social isolation, the range of activities will foster positive mental wellbeing.
The Pearce Institute	Glasgow City	£29,882	This group will use the funding to deliver arts activities addressing sectarianism, racism and bigotry. It is aimed at young people living in Govan, Govanhill, Ibrox and Parkhead and will challenge beliefs, develop understanding, and build confidence and skills.
Articulate Cultural Trust	Glasgow City	£83,401	This organisation will use the funding to give care experienced young people the opportunity to work on gable end murals and give them the chance to engage with their community through the art. The aim is to celebrate the creativity, diversity and strength of care experienced young people as well as challenging stigma and highlight their positive contributions within communities.
Council of Ethnic Minority Voluntary Sector Organisations Scotland	Glasgow City	£90,000	The group will use funding to continue the delivery of their leadership and employment support service for ethnic minority young people.
Ando Glaso SCIO	Glasgow City	£61,560	This group will use the funding to work with Roma young people in Glasgow to celebrate their culture and heritage. The three-year project will include music sessions, events, workshops, and mentoring.
Scottish Music Information Centre Ltd	Glasgow City	£90,000	This group will use the funding to deliver their music mentoring project for care experienced young people. They will use music as a way of developing confidence, wellbeing and aspirations. Participants will come from across Scotland.
Elgin Youth Development Group	Moray	£99,696	This groups will work with young people aged 11 to 18 years, building on their existing universal services which includes outreach, drop in sessions and running the Elgin Youth Café (The Warehouse). The group will organise co-designed and co-delivered sessions with the young people focusing on activities to support physical and mental wellbeing.
Children 1st	North Ayrshire	£80,565	This group will use the funding to continue delivering their 'L.E.A.D' project for young people affected by significant trauma in North Ayrshire. They will provide a range of activities to improve young people's mental and emotional wellbeing, resilience and life skills.

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
Make and Create Arts	North Lanarkshire	£85,437	This group will use funding to deliver and expand their existing arts programme for young people aged 8-16 years. The projects programme of youth arts activities will include film making, advanced camera skills, and youth theatre.
Rape and Sexual Abuse Centre Perth and Kinross	Perth and Kinross	£96,467	This group will use the funding to work with young people to enable them to plan, design and deliver a project which will extend the existing Youth Ambassadors programme to challenge inequalities and promote gender equality. Young people will develop the skill and confidence to tackle inequality and sexual violence in their schools, colleges and in the wider community.
ReMode Renfrewshire CIC	Renfrewshire	£60,602	This group will use funding to deliver interlinked youth-led creative activities and volunteering opportunities centred around the theme of promoting and understanding sustainable fashion. The programme will involve a range of skill-based workshops, outings, informal events and the production of various creative endeavours.
Scottish Huntington's Association	Renfrewshire	£80,000	This group will use the funding to continue their national youth project which supports young people aged 8-25 years, who have a diagnosis of Huntington's Disease in their family. 1:1 support, group sessions and social activities will be provided. The project will enable young people to develop coping skills and resilience whilst maintaining and strengthening parental relationships.
Liber8 (Lanarkshire Limited)	South Lanarkshire	£95,036	The group will use the funding to deliver youth counselling to support young people experiencing mild mental health, emotional and/or behavioural issues. This project is part of a wider early intervention programme delivered by a partnership of key local stakeholders to support mental health & wellbeing in young people aged 14-18.
Firefly Arts Limited	West Lothian	£63,000	This group will use funding to run a youth arts and media skills programme to improve young people's confidence and practical skills in producing art which addresses issues that are important to them.
The Larder West Lothian	West Lothian	£81,042	This group will use funding to produce an employability programme for young people in West Lothian who have multiple barriers to overcome. The programme wil support them to engage with further education, training opportunities and employment.